Evonda Watson appeared was sworn in and stated that licensee Pamela Daurham a booth renter did Janie Perez haircut and color service. She stated that Ms. Perez called the salon and stated she was not happy with the haircut and color. Evonda told her to come in and she would look at her hair. Evonda stated that the cut was not good and could not cut because there was nothing left to cut but she could try and correct the color and to come in tomorrow. She told Ms. Perez she would have to lift the red off the hair and then condition the hair. Monday Ms. Perez called and she stated she did not like the light color, so Evonda had her come back in and deposited a warm color and condition hair again.

Janie Perez complainant appeared was sworn in and stated she had requested a haircut/color "blonde" and style, she said the salon had to call in a stylist and she was told that this person Pamela Daurham specializes in color. She was turned away from the mirror the entire time of the service and she noted that Pamela had dropped the comb and picked it up and reused it on her. When the service was complete and was finally turned around to see her hair it was orange in color and the cut was a mullet. She immediately called the salon after going home and spoke to Mr. Malibu and was told to come back to the salon and Evonda would look at her hair. Evonda stated that the cut was not good and could do nothing with the cut because there was nothing left to cut, but she could try and correct the color and to come in tomorrow. She stated Evonda said that they could go 6-month treatment process and to comeback in two weeks to start. When she came to start the treatments Mr. Malibu stated we are not going to give you 6-months of treatments.

Frank Jones Member appeared was sworn in and stated that he did the consultation and Ms. Perez asked for an extreme makeover/haircut/color. Frank Jones stated that the consultation must consist of the manager, stylist and customer. Pamela Daurham the licensee who performed the service was called in because she was specialized in color and had no prior issues. Ms. Perez had color service corrected 2-times and a full refund. She was offered 6-months of treatments with a paid service or refund.

Investigator Bobbie Jones testified that this was a malpractice complaint. Complainant's hair was cut into a mullet and the color was orange and her hair was dry and brittle. She was went back and Evonda tried to correct the color and offered 6-months of reconditioning treatments, salon has refunded some money not all and mall security was called at one point during a conversation with Mr. Jones.
