Richard Van Thu Hoang #50401081, Owner 9:30 a.m.

Richard Van Thu Hoang was sworn in and stated that this salon was here a long time ago and we took over the business in 2015, and the neighbors complain about the smell. Richard Van Thu Hoang stated that ventilation system was installed but the smell is still there and we are working on another way to reduce the smell. Richard Van Thu Hoang stated that we got busy and forgot to remove the towel on the spa chair, the bottle of MMA was never used it was from the previous owner and we put it in the garbage after the inspector explained that MMA was not allowed and that his wife forgot to put away the tray with the eyelashes.

Investigator Lisa Chavez testified that on November 4, 2020, Board received an online complaint alleging AZ 3D Nails & Spa was not properly ventilated and the fumes are seeping into his business causing employees to have headaches and clients complain about the smell.

On January 6, 2021, investigator Lisa Chavez went to the salon and spoke to manager Nhung Thi Tuyet Bach and she explained that there have had issues with this person before, the owner and property manager installed something to take the smell out and denied that their clients have complained of headaches.

Investigator Lisa Chavez stated that an inspection would be conducted and found the following: In the aesthetic salon personal licenses were not displayed, unenclosed implements on pedicure carts, used eyelash adhesive left on adhesive tile and unenclosed eyelash extension tray. In the nail salon a used towel left at pedicure station, Vu Hoang Tieu Phung Nguyen station drawer had contaminates in with clean implements and 1-gallon of MMA. Investigator educated manager about MMA and it being illegal to use and have in a salon. Investigator Lisa Chaves stated that on January 21, 2021, she spoke to Richard who denied the allegation of the fumes.

Savannah Chesleigh was sworn in and stated that she was waiting for paperwork from LLC and thought it was taking a long time due to Covid and after she did receive her paperwork for the LLC and she has her personal license she thought she was ok. Savannah Chesleigh stated that she now has her salon license.

Investigator Lisa Chavez testified that on November 6, 2020, Board office received an anonymous online complaint alleging Savannah Chesleigh is advertising on social media that she has a space set up in her home to perform cosmetology services in an unlicensed residence. Investigator Lisa Chavez stated that on January 11, 2021, investigator went to the residence and spoke to the respondent. The respondent had a space set up which was very clean. The respondent told investigator that she had filed her LLC and thought she was ok and in compliance. Investigator educated respondent on how to obtain an establishment license.

Assistant Attorney General, Mona Baskin, appeared representing the State in this matter and Elizabeth Campbell Assistant Attorney General appeared providing independent legal advice to the Board on this matter.

Sara Stark Attorney for respondent present. Licensee was not present

Assistant Attorney General, Mona Baskin stated she will present a Consent Agreement that was negotiated to resolve the matters of cases 95724 and 96210 which is consolidated with 96211. Assistant Attorney General Mona Baskin stated that a Motion to Deem was filed in these cases October of 2020, sixty days passed and respondents were given sufficient time to file a response and there was not response received. The complaint was received and signed for by the licensee so they did receive actual notice. This matter was presented at the February Board meeting which was continued. Mr. Mitchell appeared on behalf of the corporation and requested that the Board give him additional time to retain a lawyer and the Board granted the continuance. Mr. Mitchell on behalf of the corporation and Erica Padilla on behalf of her instructor license did retain counsel.

Ms. Sara Stark attorney representing respondents is present.

Mona Baskin stated the she and Sara Stark went through some settlement negotiations and have three Consent Agreements for the Board consideration for voluntary revocation. For case no. 95724 Mr. Mitchell is the president and has signed the consent agreement. Ms. Erica Padilla in case no. 95724 has signed a consent agreement for voluntary revocation of her instructor license. In case nos. 96210 & 96211 there is a consent agreement signed by Mr. Mitchell on behalf of the corporation for the school license.

Mona Baskin stated that if the Board accepts and considers these consent agreements for voluntary revocation in this matter the State would move forward and withdraw the Motion to Deem Allegations Admitted.

Mona Baskin stated on behalf of the State the State feels these consent agreements for voluntary revocation are in the interest of justice.

Sara Stark stated that she is counsel for Sigma Cuts School of Beauty corporation, Sigma Cuts School of Beauty and Erica Padilla and her clients have reviewed the terms of the agreement and have accepted the terms and would ask the Board to accept the consent agreements as final resolution of this matter.

96211 Marissa Morris #91900020, Director 9:15 a.m.
Assistant Attorney General, Mona Baskin, appeared representing the State in this matter and Elizabeth Campbell Assistant Attorney General appeared providing independent legal advice to the Board on this matter.

Marissa Morris is present.

Assistant Attorney General, Mona Baskin stated that as stated in the Motion to Deem Allegations Admitted the licensee was provided actual notice of the complaint that was issued in this case on October 24, 2020, which was signed by Ms. Morris and Ms. Morris did not file a response in this matter.

On behalf of the State the State respectfully requests that the Board grant the Motion to Deem Allegations Admitted, adopt the Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law in the complaint, regarding discipline this case is very serious it involves documentation and failure to provide students' hours. The State would recommend revocation of Ms. Morris' instructor license and cost and fees per A.R.S. § 32-573 (G) and the Board has the opportunity to impose a civil penalty up to $2,000 which is left to the Board's discretion. Mona Baskin stated that Ms. Morris does hold a personal license and these proceedings are not against her personal license.

Ms. Morris stated that she attended the first meeting. Ms. Morris stated that she did everything on her own and that the students did get instruction. Ms. Morris stated that she was at the school on time and never left the school except to go to her car on break and at lunch.

Mona Baskin objected and stated that what the Board is considering is whether to grant the Motion to Deem Allegations Admitted and the State has presented evidence that Ms. Morris has received actual notice of the complaint and has adequate time to respond and she failed to respond and that is what is before the Board.
