Victor Gamez, Member/Manager

Investigative Supervisor Irma Telles asked the Board members if they would consider rescinding current consent agreement of $1,000.00 civil penalty, 1-year probation with random inspections. Investigative Supervisor Irma Telles stated it was discovered that the salon had been previously revoked on November 28, 2018, for non-compliance regarding case no. 92737. Supervisor Irma Telles stated in the event of reapplying for a new establishment license Board staff would present application to the Board to include a resolution of both cases to give the Board an option to deny or grant licensure with a consent agreement and this is consistent with the Board's parameters.

MOTION by Jenna Bentley for case no. 93681 to rescind consent agreement of $1,000 civil penalty, 1-year probation with random inspections as it has been determined that salon license SCOS26519 had been previously revoked per case no. 93737 on November 28, 2018. MOTION SECONDED by Thomas Rough.
