EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

1. Presentation of Award of Service for former Board Member Larry Bulechek.

Gary Begley stated that it was an honor for the Board to recognize Larry Bulechek today, he's given us great service over the years and has been very influential on how we have evolved in understanding regulation for cosmetology for the state.

Joe Verdugo stated that he was proud of all that Larry had accomplished and that he had learned a lot from him and thanked him.

Gary Begley, presented Larry Bulechek an Award and asked Larry to say a few words. Larry stated he holds many memories and that we've done a lot over the years. He was first appointed in 1984 by Governor Mecham, we were a progressive Board and we developed the National Exam. He stated that it has been a joy to be on the Board and it has kept him sharp and he thanked the Board.

None

B. With Negotiation Options

1. 87870 Keri J Hespelt #30600084 10:15 a.m.

Keri Hespelt appeared was sworn in and stated that she thought she could work under the Doctor license. Mr. Martin was on the premises when the service was performed and stated she has been performing this service for ten plus years. Licensee indicated that the complainant did not return any of the calls or any appointments. The Doctor did indicate that this was a normal reaction for someone that was a type III IV 4 Fitzpatrick, they signed two consent forms that stated possible blisters & hyper pigmentation which would be normal. Licensee had the laser settings on mild and did a test spot which was left for one month prior to the service. Regarding her certification her information was already sent in, however the writing was not legible so she had to resend the information. Investigator Linda Stroh testified that is was a laser hair removal service which resulted in first degree burns and blisters on complainant's daughter. The Doctor told her to apply cream. 4/15/14 ARRA was contacted to see if Licensee was certified and was told no one was certified under that name. 4/15/14 Investigator went to Spa at Estetica to speak with Licensee who was not in. Licensee was called and stated she was waiting for her certification and it was in the mail. 4/18/14 Investigator received a call from ARRA to confirm that Licensee was not a certified at this time and indicated that in January the establishment Estetica was cited for having an uncertified laser tech, Licensee Keri Hespelt.
